

SUMMER READING CHALLENGE 2021

JOURNAL PROMPTS

WEEK 4: NEURODIVERSITY

Provided by:
A Plethora of Pens
Writing Group

YOU CAN WRITE IN YOUR JOURNAL AS MANY TIMES
AS YOU WOULD LIKE!
HERE ARE JOURNAL PROMPTS FOR THIS WEEK:

Do you know anyone that has Autism? If so, what are nice, friendly ways to reach out to this person? If no, how would you reach out and approach someone who has Autism?

If you have Autism - describe what you wish our community could do that would help you feel more included and accepted.

If you do not have Autism - describe what you can do in the community or at your school that would help bring awareness and acceptance of individuals that have Autism.

Everyone has sensory-related sensitivities. This can include: tags on your t-shirts, loud noises, strong smells, nails on a chalkboard. What comes to your mind? Describe what makes you uncomfortable and agitated.